REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art of record Knieser et al US 6,583,374 is commonly assigned to the Rockwell Automation Technologies, Inc. The Knieser et al reference cannot be considered prior art.

Therefore the prior art does not disclose or fairly teach a microelectromechanical system analog isolator comprising a substrate, an element movable between a first and second position, an actuator attached to the first location to receive and input electrical signal and exert and force dependent on the input signal, a control element attached to the element to exert and force, and a sensor assembly communicating with the second location on the element to provide an output electrical signal.

Terminal Disclaimer

The terminal disclaimer filed on 4/19/04 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application, which would extend beyond the expiration date of US Patent 6,583,374 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
